Re: February 2019 Bar Examination: Applicant Information

Congratulations, you are registered for the February 2019 Guam Bar Examination. Please review the attached information with regard to the testing schedule for the February Guam Bar Examination.

The Guam Bar Examination will be administered on February 27 & 28, 2019, in the Judicial Education Center, adjacent to the Guam Law Library, 141 San Ramon Street, Hagåtña, GU 96910-5174. Testing will begin promptly according to the attached schedule. No drinking or eating is allowed in the examination room. All personal items and study materials shall remain in the back of the examination room during the testing period. Applicants will be provided by the Board of Law Examiners all pencils, pens, and erasers as needed. Applicants may bring and keep at their desks watches without alarms. All cellular phones and other electronic devices must be turned off during the examination, and may not be kept at the desks. More detailed instructions will be given on the day of testing.

You may be permitted to leave the examination room to use the restroom during the examination; however, all testing materials must remain in the examination room with the proctor and shall be returned to the applicant upon his/her return. No extra time will be given to applicants who use the restroom during the examination.

Please refer to our website for further examination information.
