(Hagåtña, Guam) - Chief Justice F. Philip Carbullido and Judge Maria T. Cenzone, along with other members of the judicial bench in Supreme and Superior Courts of Guam, cut the ribbon on an eighth courtroom in the Guam Judicial Center yesterday, October 31, 2022. The new courtroom, which will be utilized by Judge Cenzone for proceedings in the Superior Court, is equipped with updated technology and modular furniture to allow for the flexibility necessary to hold remote and hybrid hearings and to increase capacity or allow for social distancing as circumstances warrant. Designed by GUMA Architects, LLC and built by JJ Global Construction following competitive procurement, the new courtroom is intended to serve as a model for future updates to courtroom technology and design. Judge Cenzone's courtroom is located on the first floor of the Guam Judicial Center. Her previous courtroom, as well as all other courtrooms are being updated as part of the Judiciary of Guam's capital improvement plan.
