

Mission Statment

The mission of the Juvenile Probation Office (JPO) is to supervise and monitor minors placed under its control by the court to ensure conditions of probation and to enforce court orders for juvenile criminal and status offenders in the pre and post adjudication process in a fair and impartial manner as to provide an element of public safety in the community. Probation officers engage in evaluation of offender risks and needs and conduct pre and post sentence investigation at the direction of the Family Court Judge. Additionally, they track and enforce payments, fees and restitution for victims, and monitor community service, diversion and educational/ rehabilitative programs for court ordered clients. The goal is to have the minor return as a productive member of society.
