SUPREME COURT
OF GUAM

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF GUAM

RE:

Supreme Court Case No. PRM06-007

ADOPTION OF THE AMENDED RULES GOVERNING ADMISSION TO THE PRACTICE OF LAW

PROMULGATION ORDER
NO. 06-007-10

The Supreme Court, upon notice from the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) of its fee increase relative to its character and fitness investigation reports, has revisited the Rules Governing Admission to the Practice of Law ("Admissions Rules") and has proposed amendments to the following sections of these Rules: Rules 3.01(e), 3.04(a), and 4.01(d).

The substantive amendments will implement an overall increase of $50.00 for the application fee to take the Guam Bar Exam (Rules 3.04(a) and 4.01(d)), as well as for applications for temporary admission (Rule 3.01(e)).

Therefore, pursuant to the authority to "govern ...the practice of law in Guam, including admission to practice law and the conduct and discipline of persons admitted to practice law," 48 U.S.C. § 1424-1(a)(7), the Supreme Court hereby amends and restates Rules 3.01(e), 3.04(a), and 4.01(d), respectively, to read as follows (amendments underlined):

Rule 3.01. Application for Admission by Examination.

(e) Guam has no admission by comity or reciprocity. Everyone must take the entire two-day examination unless eligible to take the Attorneys Exam pursuant to Rule 4. As a

1 limited exception to this policy, and upon payment of an administrative fee to the Board
2 in the amount of $500.00, a person who has been admitted as an attorney of the highest
3 court of any state, district, commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States,
4 and who is in good standing in such other jurisdiction may practice law in Guam as a
5 temporary active member of the Guam bar pursuant to order of the Chief Justice of the 6 Supreme Court of Guam for a period of five (5) years which shall run continuously and 7 uninterrupted from the day of the order, with such temporary practice of law expressly
8 limited to full time employment with the Government of Guam, its agencies, offices, 9 authorities, public corporations, branches, and instrumentalities, and the Guam Legal 10 Services Corporation. Any person who was a temporary member of the Guam Bar and 11 did not take the bar examination before the effective date of this rule may be admitted
12 pursuant to order of the Chief Justice for an additional period of three (3) years which 13 shall run continuously and uninterrupted from the day of the latter order by the Chief 14 Justice admitting said person as a temporary active member of the Guam Bar. Any 15 person who was a temporary member of the Guam Bar and took the bar examination
16 before the effective date of this rule may be admitted pursuant to order of the Chief 17 Justice for an additional period of two (2) years which shall run continuously and 18 uninterrupted from the day of the latter order by the Chief Justice admitting said person 19 as a temporary active member of the Guam Bar. Such person(s) must seek an order from 20 the Chief Justice requesting the additional period of admission as a temporary active
21 member of the Guam Bar, and must pay the administrative fee in the amount of $500.00.
22 However, for any person who is applying for temporary admission under this rule and 23 who has had a Character & Fitness Report prepared by the NCBE within twelve (12)
24 months of seeking temporary admission, the administrative fee paid to the Board shall be 25 $75.00.

19 Under no circumstances may any person practice under temporary admission for more
20 than a cumulative, maximum total of five (5) years.

21 The Board shall inquire into the character and fitness of every person seeking admission
22 under this rule and any orders of temporary admission shall be expressly conditioned
23 upon the Board's subsequent certification of the person's character and fitness to practice
24 law. Any motion for temporary admission under this rule must be accompanied by the 25 Standard-07 Application which is the Character & Fitness Request prepared by the 26 NCBE. Any previous order by the Chief Justice admitting a person as a temporary 27 active member of the Guam Bar shall remain in full force and effect.

26 Rule 3.04. Fees and Refunds.

27 (a) The regular filing fee for all applicants for the Guam Bar Examination is $800.00. The 28 late filing fee is $1,050.00 ($800.00 regular filing fee, plus $250.00 late fee). The bar

1 examination application fee is non-refundable except if an applicant withdraws not less
2 than twenty-one (21) days prior to an examination, the applicant shall be refunded 50%
3 of the regular filing fee, otherwise no portion of the fee paid shall be refundable. The 4 Board may, at its sole discretion, upon an applicant's showing in writing of good cause
5 therefore, allow the fees paid for a particular seating of the bar examination to be applied
6 to the next succeeding exam provided, however, that, except upon a showing of 7 extraordinary circumstances, such request is made not less than ten (10) days prior to the 8 commencement of the exam from which the applicant is seeking to withdraw. The fee
9 for an applicant who is a temporary member (pursuant to Rule 3.01 (e)) shall be reduced
10 by the cost of the character and fitness investigation.

11 Rule 4.01. Attorneys Exam.

12 (d) Fees. The timely filing fee for admission by attorney's examination is $1,250.00. The 13 late filing fee is $1,500.00 ($1,250.00 timely filing fee, plus $250.00 late filing fee). The 14 fee shall be submitted together with the application form required under subsection (a)(1)
15 of this section. If the Board determines on the face of the application that the applicant is 16 not qualified to sit for the attorney's examination and the applicant elects to withdraw the 17 application without further proceedings, all fees shall be refunded. If in other 18 circumstances an applicant withdraws the application or fails to attend and take the 19 examination without permission from the Board, no fees will be refunded and the 20 examination fee may not be applied to a subsequent examination unless the applicant
21 establishes good cause for the withdrawal or failure to attend, provided, however, that,
22 except upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances, such request is made not less than 23 ten (10) days prior to the commencement of the exam from which the applicant is seeking 24 to withdraw. The fee for an applicant who is a temporary member (pursuant to Rule 3.01 25 (e)) shall be reduced by the cost of the character and fitness investigation.

26 These Rules, as amended and restated, shall be permanently adopted and effective July 1, 27 2015.
