

1 written application and in the discretion of the Supreme Court of Guam, be permitted to 2 appear and participate in a particular case pro hac vice.

3 (a) Unless authorized by the Organic Act of Guam or by duly enacted law, an 4 attorney is not eligible to practice pursuant to this rule if any one or more of the 5 following apply to him:

- 6 (1) he resides in Guam,
- 7 (2) he is regularly employed in Guam, or
- 8 (3) he is regularly engaged in business, professional or other activities in 9 Guam.

10 (b) The pro hac vice application shall be presented to the clerk of the Supreme Court
11 of Guam and shall state under penalty of perjury;

- 12 (1) the attorney's residence and office addresses,
- 13 (2) by what court(s) he has been admitted to practice and the date of 14 admission,
- 15 (3) that he is in good standing and eligible to practice in said court, and 16 provide a certificate or proof of good standing issued by said court dated 17 within 30 days of application date.
- 18 (4) that he is not currently suspended or disbarred in any other court, and
- 19 (5) if he has concurrently or within the year preceding his current application 20 made any pro hac vice applications to the Supreme Court of Guam or the 21 Superior Court of Guam, the title and the number of each matter wherein 22 he made application, the date of application, and whether or not his 23 application was granted. He shall also designate in his application an active 24 member in good standing of the bar of the Supreme Court as required by 25 Section 2 herein, with whom the courts and opposing counsel may readily 26 communicate regarding the conduct of the case and upon whom papers 27 shall be served.

(6) the name, title, and number of each matter wherein he desires permission to participate pro hac vice.

(c) The pro hac vice application shall also be accompanied by payment to the clerk of a fee of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), (payable to Clerk, Supreme Court of Guam). If the pro hac vice application is denied, the Court may refund any or all of the fee or assessment paid by the attorney. If the application is granted, the attorney is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court with respect to his conduct to the same extent as a member of the bar of this Court.

Section 2. Designation of Local Counsel. An attorney applying to practice before this Court or the Superior Court of Guam under this rule, shall designate an attorney who is an active member in good standing of the Bar of this Court, who resides in and has an office in this jurisdiction, as co-counsel. Such designation shall be filed with the pro hac vice application and shall include the address, telephone number, and written consent of such designee. The associated local attorney shall at all times meaningfully participate in the preparation and trial of the case with the authority and responsibility to act as attorney of record for all purposes. Any document required or authorized to be served on counsel by all Supreme Court of Guam or Superior Court of Guam Rules, shall be served upon the associated local counsel. Service upon associated local counsel shall be deemed proper and effective service unless excused by the judge or justice. Local counsel shall attend all proceedings related to the case before the Supreme Court of Guam or the Superior Court of Guam for which counsel is associated unless excused by the court.
