IN THE SUPREME COURT OF GUAM

RE: ) PROMULGATION ORDER NO.: 02-010
AMENDMENTS TO THE )
RULES GOVERNING ADMISSION )
TO THE PRACTICE OF LAW )

The Supreme Court of Guam en banc, by and through the Board of Law Examiners, hereby makes the following amendments to Sections 7(e) and 3(d) of the Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Rule, effective nunc pro tunc to March 8, 2002, the effective date of Promulgation Order No. 02-005.

Section 7: Approved Educational Activities.

(e) Service on Guam Bar Association or Supreme Court of Guam Committees. Members who are officers of the Guam Bar Association or sit on and actively participate in a committee of the Guam Bar Association or the Supreme Court of Guam may be given credit for such participation. Members who seek credit for such participation shall submit, with the required certification of attendance form, a statement describing the officer's or committee's tasks, the scope of the member's participation and the number of hours actually expended attending meetings or working on assigned tasks. No more than two credit hours attributed to participation as an officer or a committee member may be used to satisfy the annual CLE requirement.

Section 3: Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Requirement

(d) Approved Courses and Activities. The CLE requirement may be met either by attending courses or completing any other continuing legal education activity automatically approved for credit as provided in this Rule. Self-study, including the use of approved video or audio tapes, computer based resources, or participation in legal educational activities involving correspondence technology, in-house law firm continuing legal education efforts, teaching, and participation in a committee of the Guam Bar Association or the Supreme Court of Guam may be considered for credit when they meet the conditions set forth in this Rule. Credit shall not be given for activities not specifically enumerated in Section 7 of this Rule.
