RE:) PROMULGATION ORDER NO. 06-002-002
AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT) OF THE GUAM RULES FOR) JUDICIAL DISCIPLINARY) ENFORCEMENT)

On September 5, 2006 this court issued its Promulgation Order No. 06-002-001 memorializing the Court's adoption on March 27, 2006 of the Guam Rules for Judicial Disciplinary Enforcement pursuant to the Organic Act of Guam at 48 U.S.C. § 1424-1(a)7 to govern the discipline of Guam's judicial officers.

In the interests of efficiency and justice, this court has determined that minor changes to those Guam Rules for Judicial Disciplinary Enforcement are needed. Specifically, the individuals eligible for appointment to either the Committee on Judicial Discipline or the Special Court would more appropriately include those individuals who are current or former judges or justices of the CNMI Superior Court or Supreme Court or the federal courts, current or former judges of the Superior Court of Guam, and former justices of the Supreme Court of Guam. Furthermore, serving in a pro tempore capacity on a panel or panels of the Supreme Court of Guam either currently or in the future shall not bar a former judge or justice from appointment to either the Committee on Judicial Discipline or the Special Court. Additionally, individuals eligible for appointment to either the Committee on Judicial Discipline or the Special Court would also more appropriately include attorneys who are residents of Guam who are admitted to practice in any court of Guam and who

2 are in good standing. This will render eligible for appointment attorneys that practice only before
3 the Federal District Court of Guam who are in good standing before that court and that are residents
4 of Guam.

6 Therefore, pursuant to the authority to govern judicial ethics granted by the Organic Act of 7 Guam at 48 U.S.C. § 1424-1(a)7, the Supreme Court hereby adopts the Amended and Restated
8 Guam Rules for Judicial Disciplinary Enforcement as follows:

9
10 GUAM RULES FOR JUDICIAL DISCIPLINARY ENFORCEMENT

11 [As Amended and Restated on April 13, 2007 Pursuant to Promulgation Order 06-002-002]¹

12 TERMINOLOGY

13 To promote effective disciplinary enforcement in Guam, the terminology set forth below 14 shall be used.

15 Commission Counsel: the lawyer drafting reports, providing legal advice to the judicial 16 disciplinary authority and performing other duties assigned by the judicial disciplinary authority.
17 See Rule 5.

18 Complaint: information in any form from any source received by the Committee on Judicial 19 Discipline that alleges or from which a reasonable inference can be drawn that a judge committed 20 misconduct or is incapacitated. If there is no written complaint from another person, disciplinary 21 counsel's written statement of the allegations constitutes the complaint.

22 Deferred Discipline Agreement: a confidential agreement between the judge and the 23 Committee on Judicial Discipline for the judge to undergo treatment, participate in education 24 programs or take other corrective action. It is only available as a response to misconduct that is 25 minor and can be addressed through treatment or a rehabilitation program. A deferred discipline 26 agreement can only be entered into prior to the filing and service of formal charges.

27 ¹ The original Rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Guam through Promulgation Order 06-002-001 effective March 27, 2006 are amended herein at Rules 2.1(D) and 2.2(D) to broaden the pool of individuals eligible for appointment to the Committee on Judicial Discipline and the Special Court.

RULE 17. SCREENING AND INVESTIGATION

(A) Screening Disciplinary counsel shall evaluate all information coming to disciplinary counsel's attention by complaint or from other sources that alleges judicial misconduct or incapacity. If the information would not constitute misconduct or incapacity if true, disciplinary counsel shall dismiss the complaint, subject to review by the Committee on Judicial Discipline. If the information raises allegations that would constitute judicial misconduct or incapacity if true, disciplinary counsel shall conduct a preliminary investigation.

(B) Preliminary Investigation.

(1) Disciplinary counsel may conduct interviews and examine evidence to determine whether grounds exist to believe the allegations of complaints, provided that no subpoena shall issue to obtain testimony or evidence until the Committee on Judicial Discipline authorizes a full investigation pursuant to Rule 17(c).

(2) When disciplinary counsel believes there is evidence supporting the allegations against a judge, he or she shall recommend to the Committee on Judicial Discipline that the Committee authorize a full investigation. Disciplinary counsel may recommend a full investigation when there are grounds to believe that evidence supporting the allegations could be obtained by subpoena or further investigation. In all other cases, disciplinary counsel shall recommend that the matter be dismissed.

(3) The Committee on Judicial Discipline shall review disciplinary counsel's recommendations and either dismiss the complaint or authorize a full investigation.

(C) Full Investigation.

(1) Within 10 days after the Committee on Judicial Discipline authorizes a full investigation, disciplinary counsel shall give the following notice to the judge:

(a) a specific statement of the allegations being investigated and the canons or rules allegedly violated, with the provision that the investigation can be expanded if appropriate;

(b) the judge's duty to respond pursuant to Rule 17(C)(3);

(c) the judge's opportunity to meet with disciplinary counsel pursuant to Rule 17(C)(4); and

(d) the name of the complainant unless the Committee on Judicial Discipline determines that there is good cause to withhold that information taking into consideration factors, including but not limited to the materiality of the information possessed by the complainant and the position the complainant occupies in relation to the judge.

(2) The Committee on Judicial Discipline may defer the giving of notice but, when notice is deferred, disciplinary counsel must give notice to the judge before making a recommendation as to a disposition.

(3) Disciplinary counsel may request that the judge file a written response within 20 days after service of the notice under Rule 17(C)(1).

(4) Before the Committee on Judicial Discipline determines its disposition of the complaint under Rule 17(D), either disciplinary counsel or the judge may request an appearance before disciplinary counsel to respond to questions. The appearance shall be on the record. If disciplinary counsel requests the judge's appearance, disciplinary counsel must give the judge 20 days notice and the testimony shall be sworn.

(f) a stay.

(2) The Committee may adopt, reject or modify the recommendations of disciplinary counsel. If the Committee finds a violation pursuant to Rule 6 for which the imposition of discipline is not warranted it may dismiss. If the Committee finds that there is reasonable cause to believe the judge committed misconduct,

(a) it may propose a private admonition or deferred discipline agreement to the respondent and if the respondent consents, it shall admonish the respondent or implement the deferred disciplinary agreement; in addition, it may assess costs against the respondent as a condition of the private admonition or deferred disciplinary agreement;

(b) if the respondent does not consent to the admonishment or the deferred discipline, the investigative panel may direct disciplinary counsel either to file formal charges or dismiss the complaint; or

(c) it may direct disciplinary counsel to file formal charges.

(E) Immunity from Criminal Prosecution. Whenever a witness invokes his or her privilege against self-incrimination as a basis for refusing to answer a question or to produce other evidence that may be relevant to a discipline or incapacity proceeding, disciplinary counsel may apply to the appropriate court for a grant of immunity from criminal prosecution and shall give notice of the application to the prosecuting authority. If the court grants the order, the witness may not refuse to comply with the order on the basis of the witness's privilege against self-incrimination, but no testimony or other evidence compelled under such an order shall be used against the witness in any criminal case. The witness may be prosecuted for perjury or contempt committed in answering or failing to answer in accordance with the order.

RULE 18. USE OF ALLEGATIONS FROM DISMISSED CASES

If a complaint has been dismissed, the allegations made in that complaint shall not be used for any purpose in any judicial or lawyer disciplinary proceeding against the judge. If additional information becomes known to disciplinary counsel regarding a complaint that has been dismissed before the filing of formal charges, the allegations may be reinvestigated with permission of the Committee on Judicial Discipline.

RULE 19. FORMAL CHARGES

4 The formal charges shall give fair and adequate notice of the nature of the alleged 5 misconduct or incapacity. Disciplinary counsel shall file the formal charges with the Special Court.
6 Disciplinary counsel shall cause a copy of the formal charges to be served upon the respondent or 7 respondent's counsel pursuant to Rule 13 and shall file proof of service with the Special Court.

RULE 20. ANSWER

10 (A) Time. The respondent shall file a written answer with the Special Court and serve
11 a copy on disciplinary counsel within 20 days after service of the formal charges, unless the time
12 is extended by the Special Court.

13 (B) Waiver of Privilege. The raising of a mental or physical condition as a defense
14 constitutes a waiver of medical privilege pursuant to Rule 27(D)(4).

RULE 21. FAILURE TO ANSWER/FAILURE TO APPEAR

17 (A) Failure to Answer. Failure to answer the formal charges shall constitute an 18 admission of the factual allegations.

19 (B) Failure to Appear. If the respondent should fail to appear when specifically so 20 ordered by the Special Court or the Supreme Court of Guam, the respondent shall be deemed to 21 have admitted the factual allegations which were to be the subject of such appearance and to have 22 conceded the merits of any motion or recommendations to be considered at such appearance. Absent 23 good cause, the Special Court or Supreme Court shall not continue or delay proceedings because 24 of the respondent's failure to appear.

25 (C) Nothing in this Rule shall be construed to relieve disciplinary counsel from the 26 burden of proof or persuasion in establishing a prima facie case of misconduct.

27

RULE 22. DISCOVERY

28 (A) Witnesses. Within 20 days of the filing of an answer, disciplinary counsel and 29 respondent shall exchange the names and addresses of all persons known to have knowledge of the 30 relevant facts. Disciplinary counsel or the respondent may withhold such information only with 31 permission of the Special Court, which can authorize withholding of the information only for good
32 cause shown, taking into consideration the materiality of the information possessed by the person 33 known to have knowledge of the relevant facts and the position such person occupies in relation to 34 the judge. The Special Court's review of the withholding request is to be in camera, but disciplinary 35 counsel must advise respondent of the request without disclosing the subject of the request. The 36 Special Court shall set a date not less than thirty [30] days prior to the completion of discovery for

2 the exchange of the names and addresses of all witnesses the parties intend to call at the hearing.
3 Disciplinary counsel and respondent may take depositions only of witnesses to be called at the 4 hearing and other witnesses who are unavailable to testify. Depositions of other persons may be taken only with permission of the Special Court and only for good cause shown.

5 (B) Other Evidence. Disciplinary counsel and respondent shall exchange:

6 (1) non-privileged evidence relevant to the formal charges, documents
7 to be presented at the hearing, and witness statements of those who will be called 8 at the hearing; and

9 (2) other material only upon good cause shown to the Special Court.

10 (C) Exculpatory Evidence. Disciplinary counsel shall provide respondent with 11 exculpatory evidence relevant to the formal charges.

12 (D) Duty of Supplementation. Both parties have a continuing duty to supplement information required to be exchanged under this Rule.

13 (E) Completion of Discovery. Unless extended by the Special Court for good cause 14 shown, all discovery shall be completed within 60 days of the filing of the answer.

15 (F) Failure to Disclose. Taking into consideration the reasons for the failure to disclose, 16 the prejudice to the party calling the witness if the witness is not called and the extent to which the 17 opposing party will be prejudiced by the lack of advance disclosure, the Special Court may preclude 18 either party from calling a witness at the hearing if the party has not provided the opposing party with the witness's name and address, or any statements taken from the witness.

19 (G) Resolution of Disputes. Disputes concerning discovery shall be determined by the 20 Special Court. The decisions of the Special Court concerning discovery may not be appealed before the entry of the final order.

21 (H) Civil Rules Not Applicable. Proceedings under these Rules are not subject to the 22 Guam Rules of Civil Procedure regarding discovery except those rules relating to depositions and 23 subpoenas.

24 RULE 23. DISCIPLINE BY CONSENT

25 (A) Approval. At any time after the filing of formal charges and before final disposition, 26 the respondent may agree with disciplinary counsel that the respondent shall admit to any or all of 27 the formal charges in exchange for a stated sanction. The agreement shall be submitted to the Special Court, which shall either:

- (1) reject the agreement and generally state the reasons therefor; or
- (2) submit the agreement to the Supreme Court of Guam for approval.

(B) Rejection of Sanction. If the stated sanction is rejected by the Special Court or the Supreme Court, the admission shall be withdrawn and cannot be used against the respondent in any proceedings.

(C) Affidavit of Consent. A respondent who consents to a stated sanction shall sign an affidavit stating that:

- (1) the respondent consents to the sanction;
- (2) the consent is freely and voluntarily rendered;
- (3) there is presently pending a proceeding involving allegations of misconduct; and
- (4) the facts set forth in the affidavit are true.

(D) Order of Discipline. The Special Court shall file the affidavit with the Supreme Court. The affidavit shall remain confidential until it is accepted by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court shall either reject the agreement generally stating the reasons therefor or enter the order disciplining the respondent. The final order of discipline shall be based upon the formal charges and the conditional admission.

RULE 24. HEARING

(A) Scheduling. Upon receipt of the respondent's answer or upon expiration of the time to answer, the Special Court shall schedule a public hearing and notify disciplinary counsel and respondent of the date, time and place of the hearing.

(B) Hearing Panel. The hearing shall be conducted by the Special Court.

(C) Conduct of Hearing.

- (1) All testimony shall be under oath.
- (2) Disciplinary counsel shall present evidence on formal charges.
- (3) Disciplinary counsel may call the respondent as a witness.

2 (4) Both parties shall be permitted to present evidence and produce and 3 cross-examine witnesses.

4 (5) The hearing shall be recorded verbatim. Whenever a transcript is 5 requested by respondent, disciplinary counsel, a member of the Special Court, or the 6 Supreme Court, a transcript of the hearing or that part of the hearing requested shall be produced promptly and shall be provided to the respondent without cost.

7 (6) Disciplinary counsel and the respondent may submit proposed 8 findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations for sanction or order of dismissal to the Special Court.

9 (7) If a hearing officer is used, the findings are to be submitted to the 10 Special Court.

11 (D) Dismissal or Recommendation for Sanction . The Special Court shall either 12 dismiss the case or recommend a sanction to the Supreme Court of Guam. The Special Court shall 13 decide a matter only upon the concurrence of a majority of its members.

14 (E) Submission of the Report. Within 30 days after the hearing or after the filing of the 15 transcript if one was requested, the Special Court shall file with the Supreme Court the record of 16 the proceeding and a report setting forth a written summary, proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, any minority opinions and the order of dismissal or recommendation for sanction. The Special Court shall at the same time serve the report upon the respondent and disciplinary counsel.

17 (F) Notice of Exceptions. Within 20 days of receipt of the Special Court's report, the 18 respondent and disciplinary counsel may file with the Supreme Court notice of exceptions to the 19 findings, conclusions or recommendations for sanction or order of dismissal of the Special Court 20 and the request for any further transcripts. The failure to file notice of exceptions constitutes acceptance of the findings of fact, conclusions of law and order of dismissal or recommendation for sanction.

21 (G) Notice to the Guam Bar Ethics Committee . Whenever the Special Court
22 recommends the suspension or removal of a respondent, it shall serve a copy of its report on the 23 Guam Bar Ethics Committee at the same time the report is filed with the Supreme Court. The Guam 24 Bar Ethics Committee may file with the Supreme Court recommendations for imposing lawyer disciplinary sanctions on the respondent. Recommendations from the Guam Bar Ethics Committee shall be filed in a brief in accordance with Rule 25(B).

13

14

17

(3) The Supreme Court may order additional briefs or oral arguments as to the entire case or specified issues.

18

(C) Stay for Further Proceedings. If during review by the Supreme Court the Special Court receives another complaint against the respondent, the disciplinary counsel shall advise the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may stay its review pending the Special Court's determination of the second complaint. The Supreme Court may impose a single sanction covering all recommendations for discipline from the Special Court against a respondent.

20

23

(1) The Supreme Court shall file a written decision dismissing the case or imposing a sanction. All decisions issued by the Supreme Court shall be published for the guidance of other judges and for public information.

(2) The Supreme Court may accept, reject or modify in whole or in part the findings and conclusions of the Special Court.

27

2 (3) The Supreme Court may assess costs against the respondent if it finds
3 the respondent committed misconduct.

4 RULE 26. COMPLAINT AGAINST A MEMBER
5 OF THE SUPREME COURT OF GUAM

6 (A) Proceedings Generally. A complaint against a member of Supreme Court of Guam
7 shall proceed in the same manner as a complaint against any other judge except as set forth in this 8 Rule.

9 (B) Special Supreme Court. Upon either a motion by disciplinary counsel or the 10 Supreme Court of Guam's own motion for interim suspension of a member of the Supreme Court
11 pursuant to Rule 15(A) or a finding of reasonable cause to believe misconduct was committed by 12 a member of the Supreme Court of Guam pursuant to Rule 17(B)(2), a Special Supreme Court shall 13 be constituted. The Special Supreme Court shall consist of a number of judges equal to the number 14 of justices of the Supreme Court of Guam. Judges of the Special Supreme Court shall meet the same 15 qualifications as a regularly appointed Justice of the Supreme Court. Selection of the Judges of the 16 Special Supreme Court shall be determined by the Clerk of the Supreme Court, by lot, from a list
17 maintained by the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Guam of qualified and available persons.

18 (C) Stipulated Dispositions. Final review of a stipulation pursuant to Rule 23 shall be 19 by the Committee on Judicial Discipline and the Special Court.

20 (D) Final Disposition. If neither the disciplinary counsel nor the respondent objects to 21 the decision of the Special Court pursuant to Rule 24(D), the decision shall be final and the Special
22 Supreme Court shall not review the matter. If either the disciplinary counsel or the respondent
23 objects, the Special Court shall file its report and conclusions, any minority opinion and the record
24 of the proceedings with the Special Supreme Court which shall review the matter pursuant to Rule 25 25.

26 RULE 27. CASES INVOLVING ALLEGATIONS
27 OF MENTAL OR PHYSICAL INCAPACITY

(A) Initiation of Incapacity Proceeding. An incapacity proceeding can be initiated by complaint, by a claim of inability to defend in a disciplinary proceeding or by an order of involuntary commitment or adjudication of incompetency.

(B) Proceedings to Determine Incapacity Generally. All incapacity proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures for disciplinary proceedings, except:

Adoption of the Amended and Restated Guam Rules for Judicial Disciplinary Enforcement

2 (1) the purpose of the incapacity proceedings shall be to determine
3 whether the judge suffers from a physical or mental condition that adversely affects 4 the judge's ability to perform judicial functions;

5 (2) all of the proceedings shall be confidential;

6 (3) the Committee on Judicial Discipline may appoint a lawyer to 7 represent the judge if the judge is without representation; and

8 (4) if the Supreme Court concludes that the judge is incapacitated to hold 9 judicial office, it may enter any order appropriate to the circumstances, the nature of the incapacity and the probable length of the period of incapacity, including:

10 (a) retiring the judge;

11 (b) transferring the judge to judicial incapacity inactive
12 status;

13 (c) if the Supreme Court concludes that the judge is 14 incapacitated to practice law, transferring the judge to lawyer incapacity inactive status; and 15 (d) if a judicial disciplinary proceeding against the judge 16 is pending and the Supreme Court concludes that the judge is 17 incapacitated to defend, deferring the disciplinary proceeding, pursuant to Rule 27.D(2).

18 (C) Involuntary Commitment or Adjudication of Incompetency. If a judge has been 19 judicially declared incompetent or is involuntarily committed on the grounds of incompetency or 20 incapacity by a final judicial order after a judicial hearing, the Supreme Court, upon receipt of a
21 certified copy of the order, shall enter an order immediately transferring the judge to both lawyer 22 and judicial incapacity inactive status. A copy of the order shall be served, in the manner the Supreme Court shall direct, upon the judge, his or her guardian or the director of the institution to which the judge has been committed.

23 (D) Inability to Properly Defend in a Disciplinary Proceeding.

24 (1) If in the course of a disciplinary proceeding a judge alleges an 25 inability to assist in the defense due to mental or physical incapacity, disciplinary 26 counsel shall notify the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court shall immediately 27 transfer the judge to lawyer and judicial incapacity inactive status pending a determination by the Supreme Court of the incapacity pursuant to Rule 27(B). A

2 determination by the Committee on Judicial Discipline that the judge is able to assist 3 in his or her own defense is interlocutory and may not be appealed before entry of 4 a final order in the proceeding.

5 (2) If, pursuant to Rule 27(B), the Supreme Court determines the claim
6 of inability to defend is valid, the disciplinary proceeding shall be deferred. Any 7 investigation of the disciplinary complaint may continue. The judge shall be retained
8 on lawyer and judicial incapacity inactive status until the Supreme Court grants a 9 petition for reinstatement to active status as a lawyer or judge. If the Supreme Court
10 considering the petition for reinstatement to active status determines that the petition 11 shall be granted, the Supreme Court shall also determine the disposition of the 12 interrupted disciplinary proceedings.

13 (3) If, pursuant to Rule 27(B), the Supreme Court determines that the 14 claim of inability to defend is invalid but that the judge is incapacitated to hold 15 judicial office, the disciplinary proceeding shall resume. The judge shall be retained 16 on judicial incapacity inactive status.

17 (4) The raising of mental or physical condition as a defense to or in 18 mitigation of formal charges constitutes a waiver of medical privilege.

19 (E) Stipulated Disposition.

20 (1) The Special Court shall designate one or more qualified medical, 21 psychiatric or psychological experts to examine the judge prior to the hearing on the 22 matter. The Special Court may designate an expert agreed upon by disciplinary 23 counsel and the judge. The expert or experts shall report to the highest court and the 24 parties.

25 (2) After receipt of the examination report, disciplinary counsel and the 26 judge may agree upon proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and order. The 27 stipulated disposition shall be submitted to the Special Court for a recommendation to the Supreme Court for approval or rejection. The final decision on the recommendation shall be made by the Supreme Court.

(3) If the Supreme Court accepts the stipulated disposition, the Supreme Court shall enter an order in accordance with its terms. If the stipulated disposition is rejected by the Supreme Court, it shall be withdrawn and cannot be used against the judge in any proceedings. If the Supreme Court rejects the stipulated disposition, the Supreme Court shall order that the hearing proceed.

(F) Reinstatement from Incapacity Inactive Status.

status except by order of the Supreme Court.

(2) Any judge transferred to incapacity inactive status shall be entitled to petition for transfer to active status once a year or at whatever shorter intervals the Supreme Court may direct in the order transferring the judge to incapacity inactive status or any modifications thereof.

(3) Upon the filing of a petition for transfer to active status, the Supreme Court may take or direct whatever action it deems necessary or proper to determine whether the incapacity has been removed, including a direction for an examination of the judge by qualified medical or psychological experts designated by the Supreme Court.

(4) With the filing of a petition for reinstatement to active status, the judge shall be required to disclose the name of each psychiatrist, psychologist, physician and hospital or other institution by whom or in which the judge has been examined or treated since the transfer to incapacity inactive status. The judge shall furnish to the Supreme Court written consent to the release of information and records relating to the incapacity if requested by the Supreme Court or court-appointed medical or psychological experts.

(5) If a judge transferred to lawyer incapacity inactive status on the basis of a judicial determination of incompetence has been declared to be competent, the Supreme Court may dispense with further evidence that the incapacity to practice law has been removed and may immediately direct reinstatement to active status as a lawyer.
