IN THE SUPREME COURT OF GUAM

RE:	)	SUPREME COURT CASE
	)	NO. PRM21-001
	)
AMENDMENT TO THE GUAM	)
RULES FOR LAWYER	)	PROMULGATION
DISCIPLINARY ENFORCEMENT	)	ORDER NO. 21-001-02
AND DISABILITY PROCEEDINGS.	)

The Supreme Court, under its Organic Act authority to “make and promulgate rules governing the administration of the judiciary and the practice and procedure in the courts of the judicial branch of Guam,” 48 U.S.C. 5 1424-1(a)(6), and upon the request of the Guam Bar Association (GBA) Board of Governors to amend Rule 12 Immunity; Laws Inapplicable of the Guam Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement and Disability Proceedings (“Rules”) (adopted pursuant to Promulgation Order No. 21-001-01 (Mar. 16, 2021), effective August 1, 2021). The GBA requests that the court amend Rule 12 for the purpose of adding an additional provision for confidentiality and immunity related to Guam Bar Lawyer Assistance Programs/Alternative Discipline

1 Programs, as part of its ongoing efforts to establish the GBA Law Assistance Program,
2 Wellness Program, and Alternative Discipline Programs.

3 The court finds that although the Rules provide for confidentiality and immunity,
4 the current provisions may not cover voluntary participation in any lawyer assistance
5 program intended as a resource and aid to lawyers voluntarily seeking help with 6 alcoholism or substance abuse and other addictive disorders, in addition to dealing with 7 such issues as stress, depression, problem gambling, vicarious trauma, and other mental 8 health issues. Because a voluntary system is intended to assist those lawyers dealing with 9 the aforementioned issues, the court finds that application of the confidentiality and 10 immunity provisions is necessary to the functionality of any lawyer assistance program.

13
14 Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that Rule 12 Immunity; Laws Inapplicable
15 of the Guam Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement and Disability Proceedings
16 shall be amended to include subparagraph (c) as follows:
17

18 (c) Confidentiality and Immunity, Lawyer Assistance Programs

19
20 1. Confidential information privileged. The confidential relations and 21 communications between a member or authorized agent of a lawyer
22 assistance committee sponsored by a territorial, state, or local bar
23 association and any person, firm, or corporation communicating with 24 such committee, its members, or authorized agents shall be deemed to 25 be privileged on the same basis as those provided by law between attorney and client. Such privilege may be waived only by the person, firm, or corporation which has furnished information to the committee.

26
27 2. Immunity from liability. Any person, firm, or corporation in good 28 faith providing information to, or in any other way participating in the

1           affairs of, any of the committees referred to in subsection (c)(1) shall
2           be immune from civil liability that might otherwise result by reason of 3           such conduct. For the purpose of any proceeding, the good faith of 4           any such person, firm, or corporation shall be presumed.

5           SO ORDERED on this 6th day of May, 2024.
